present

Front End Apprentice

Bloc.io

- 2yr+ project-based online apprenticeship program under one on one mentorship of accomplished full-stack developers and software engineers.
- Independently worked on project titled Bloc Jams, a free digital music player site similar to spotify in 3 phases. Phase one used HTML, CSS and Vanilla Javascript . Phase two used JQuery to refactor large portions of code as an exercise to reinforce front-end fundamentals and enforce DOM model manipulation skills. Final phase constituted of rebuilding entire program from scratch using React, CSS, ReactStrap, and npm packages.
