An out of the box thinker looking for a full-stack developer position that utilizes my creative, organizational, and designing skills to analyze problems and build systems to solve them.

Experience

Oct 2016 - present

Front End Apprentice

Bloc.io

- 500+ hour project-based online apprenticeship program under one on one mentorship of accomplished full-stack developers and software engineers.
- Independently worked on project titled My Jams, a free digital music player site similar to spotify in 3 phases. Phase one used HTML, CSS and Vanilla Javascript until site was fully functional. Phase two used JQuery to refactor large portions of the Vanilla Javascript as an exercise to reinforce front-end fundamentals and enforce DOM model manipulation skills. Final phase constituted of rebuilding entire program from scratch using React, JSX, CSS, Bootstrap, Babel and npm.
- Independently worked on project titled MEMEit, a Reddit inspired site for sharing memes privately or with the community. Built with Ruby on Rails, Rspec, and Sass.
